Third Party Authorization (Optional)

A third party is defined as any person other than the applicant listed on the application form. The practice of having another person inquiring about the status of an application and/or providing information and documentation of an applicant can compromise the authenticity and security of the application process. We understand that there may be times when a third party can help expedite the application process; therefore, third party involvement will be limited to the follow capacities as listed.

Please understand that no third party involvement will be allowed other than the person authorized below.

I authorize, _____, to act on my behalf in the United States in the following capacity/capacities.

Please check all that apply

- 1. _____ Receive and submit my documents to Weatherford College International Office.

- 2. _____ Submit bank statement(s) and affidavit of support with the understanding that the person submitting the mentioned documents is my sponsor and is responsible for all my financial obligations in the United States.

- 3. _____ To pay for my application fee, housing deposit, housing fees, and tuitions fees.

I understand that restriction on 3rd party involvement is meant to protect the security and authenticity of my application.

This authorization is provided to the applicant as a benefit of Weatherford College. This will provide a safe form of communication as well as secure the application from fraudulent practices.

I also understand that Weatherford College reserves the right to reject any authorization.
