RULES AND REGULATIONS:

Submissions are due by 11:59 PM CST February 19, 2020. Winners will be announced in April 2020.

Submit to dbrewer@wc.edu. Attach the submission as a .doc or .rtf file. Identify the category being submitted to in the subject line of the email; in the email body, identify yourself, your student ID number, the title of the work, and the total word count of your submission. On the submission itself, include your student ID number but no other identifying information. If submitting to more than one category, a separate email must be sent for each category. For those wondering, creative non-fiction involves telling a real-life story through the use of creative writing techniques (dialogue, description, etc.). The Writing Center and Creative Writing Club meetings are also helpful ways to workshop/edit your writing.

All participants agree to the use of their name and the title of their work in promotional materials, including the possibilities of winning entries being recognized at an event, on the internet, across social media, and/or in print publication.
